Professional summary

Leveraging years of experience with leading global tech-driven football companies, and working closely with some of the sport's most celebrated coaches, I'm focused on fostering a culture of victory, player development, and teamwork for organizational triumph. My expertise spans analytical insight, tactical knowledge, team cohesion, clear communication, and managing pressure, all targeted at securing unparalleled success in the competitive football arena.

Work Experience

October 2015 - Present

Founder and CEO of Sports Analysis SRL

During our partnership with Wyscout LTD until December 2023, we analyzed over 115,000 football matches, peaking with a 150-member team. Our collaboration was instrumental in driving Wyscout's market monopoly, showcasing our pivotal role and exceptional performance in the sports analysis sector.

July 2020 - Present

As Mircea Lucescu's football advisor, I provide data, insights, and counsel on prospective clubs, player scouting, opponent analysis, financial evaluations, and tailored reports as needed by Mr. Lucescu.

September 2021 - November 2023

As Dynamo Kiev's Football Manager within the Scientific Research Department, I acted as the key liaison between the coach and analytics, scouting, and sports management teams. I also contributed to daily team operations, training plans, international and domestic opponent analysis, performance metrics, and academy talent assessment.
